FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 20, 2007 (INDIANAPOLIS)- Donald C. Hellem, AIA, NCARB has been promoted to Director of Health Care, according to an announcement made today by Fredrick J. Green, president and chief operating officer of Cripe Architects + Engineers.

"It is Don's leadership in the Health Care market, with his involvement in such organizations like the Indiana Rural Health Association, AIA Academy of Architects for Health and the Indiana Hospital and Health Association, coupled with his extensive technical expertise and his dedication to client satisfaction that makes Don the ideal leader for growing Cripe's Health Care market," stated Green.

In Hellem's new role, he will be responsible for understanding the distinct needs of Health Care clients and for marketing Cripe's Health Care services to both existing and prospective clients.

Hellem holds a Bachelor of Architecture from North Dakota State University and has over 30 years of architectural experience.

Cripe Architects + Engineers is an Indianapolis-based design firm that was founded in 1937 by Mr. Paul I. Cripe.
