FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 8, 2007 (INDIANAPOLIS)- Dale Vogel has been named Equipment Coordinator, according to an announcement made today by Fredrick J. Green, AIA, NCARB, president and chief operating officer of Cripe Architects + Engineers.

"Cripe's Health Care team understands the dynamic nature of the industry and how quickly the environment is evolving with the rapid advances being made in technology. Some of our Health Care clients shared their need to have a partner skilled in Equipment Coordination, Procurement and Scheduling; Dale took that information, went through an intensive training process and has been successfully providing these services to our Health Care clients. We are pleased to add Equipment Coordinator to Dale's title," stated Green.

Vogel holds both a Bachelor of Architecture and a Bachelor of Science in Environmental Design from Ball State University.
