FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 19, 2007 (INDIANAPOLIS)- Bill Stinson has joined Cripe Architects + Engineers in the role of New Business Development Director, announced president and chief operating officer Fredrick J. Green.

"As the former Executive Director of the Indiana State Fair Commission from 1993-2005 and as a seven year board member on the Board of Parks and Recreation for the City of Indianapolis, Bill Stinson has not only been involved in countless capital improvement projects but has also crafted a reputation as a well-respected leader both in our community and in our state. With his experience, Bill is aptly suited to guide Cripe's new business growth; we are pleased to have Bill joining the Cripe Architects + Engineers team," stated Green. Since 2005, Stinson has run his own engineering firm.

In Stinson's new role, he will be responsible to work with other Cripe Executives to develop the strategic Sales Plan and then implement the plan across the company.

Stinson holds a Bachelor of Science in Urban Studies from Xavier University.

Cripe Architects + Engineers is a minority-owned, Indianapolis-based design firm that was founded in 1937 by Mr. Paul I. Cripe. The firm's 80 employees provide Architectural Design, Civil Engineering, Transportation Engineering, Master Planning, Land Surveying, Construction Layout, Geographic Information Systems and Owner's Representation services to its clients. Its work spans all industries but concentrates in the Health Care, Education, Government/ Municipalities, and Commercial markets. Headquartered at 7172 Graham Road, Cripe Architects + Engineers also has offices in Carmel and Fort Wayne. Cripe Architects + Engineers has also been named one of the "Best Places to Work" by the Indiana Chamber of Commerce in both 2006 and 2007.
