FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 5, 2007 (INDIANAPOLIS)- Kara Hensley has joined Cripe Architects + Engineers in the role of Director of Human Resources, announced president and chief operating officer Fredrick J. Green.

"We are so fortunate to have someone with Kara's background and 25 years of Human Resources experience to be joining our team, and we will be looking to her for strategic leadership in all of our Human Resources initiatives, including our retention, recruitment and Employer of Choice programs," stated Green.

Hensley holds a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from DePauw University.

Cripe Architects + Engineers is a minority-owned, Indianapolis-based design firm that was founded in 1937 by Mr. Paul I. Cripe. The firm's 80 employees provide Architectural Design, Civil Engineering, Transportation Engineering, Master Planning, Land Surveying, Construction Layout, Geographic Information Systems and Owner's Representation services to its clients. Its work spans all industries but concentrates in the Health Care, Education, Government/ Municipalities, and Commercial markets. Headquartered at 7172 Graham Road, Cripe Architects + Engineers also has offices in Carmel and Fort Wayne. Cripe Architects + Engineers has also been named one of the "Best Places to Work" by the Indiana Chamber of Commerce in both 2006 and 2007.
