FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 24, 2008 (INDIANAPOLIS)- Frank E. Hindes, AIA, LEED® AP has recently graduated from the Hamilton County Leadership Academy, announced Professional Services Director, Architecture, Michael A. Grubb, AIA, LEED® AP.

"We at Cripe believe strongly in giving back to the communities in which we live and work, and almost 40% of Cripe's associates reside in Hamilton County. We are proud of Frank's leadership in the community," stated Grubb.

The Hamilton County Leadership Academy was created in 1991 to establish a pool of knowledgeable community leaders to apply their skills to government, business and civic activities and positively shape the future of Hamilton County. The Leadership Academy offers a 10-month program that develops, educates and motivates future leaders to create positive change in our government, businesses and community.

Cripe Architects + Engineers is a minority-owned, Indianapolis-based design firm that was founded in 1937 by Mr. Paul I. Cripe.
